

Lead the change to participant-centric retirement.

Manifest is a digital solution to a paper problem. Employees struggle to manually transfer their retirement savings from job to job with the current process. That is why Manifest has built the first ever plan-to-plan transfer tool. A tool that hunts down old accounts and consolidates them into one place, for free, in minutes. We're on a mission to maximize retirement outcomes, and we're bringing our impact to employers.

Employers go live in less than 30 minutes, with:

Zero integrations

No enterprise contracts

Free for employers and participants
